Commercial Communications

As stated above, one of the purposes for processing personal data (if such data is supplied) is to send electronic communications containing relevant information and updates of the industry.

This type of communications shall be sent only to those users who have previously authorized the receipt of communications and who have not expressed any dissent to the sending of such commercial communications. If a user does not wish to receive commercial or marketing communications, he or she can unsubscribe from the service through the following e-mail: bajanewsletter@intelygenz.com.

Cookies

What are cookies? A cookie is a file that is downloaded onto your computer when visiting certain websites. Cookies enable websites to, among other things, store and retrieve information about users' surfing habits or their computers, and, depending on the information contained therein and the way they use their computers, cookies can be used to recognize the users.

What type of cookies this website uses?

- Session cookies: they keep users identified in the WEBSITE, enabling their interaction with it.
- Analysis cookies: these are those cookies that, either processed by us or by third parties, enable us to quantify the number of users and thus carry out a measurement and statistical analysis about how users make use of the offered service. For this purpose, we analyze users' navigation within our website in order to improve the range of products and services that we offer.
